

Ohio Fishing Law Broadened

Residents May Angle All Over

A three-member state board to work out agreements with other states so licensed Ohio anglers may fish in those other states under the Ohio license, and vice versa, is created in a new Ohio law which becomes effective tomorrow, Rep. Ed Wallace of Pickaway County pointed out today.

The law, passed at the recent session of the 102nd General Assembly of Ohio, names the Attorney General, Wildlife Division Chief and Natural Resources Department Director to a board to enter into reciprocal agreements with other states on the licensing of anglers.

Under the agreements, anglers licensed in Ohio could fish in the other states, districts, counties or sovereignties without buying a license there and fishermen licensed there would be granted similar exemption in Ohio.

Another new law, effective Saturday, requires the state health director to conduct air pollution research and assist political subdivisions in pollution abatement.

It requires the director to maintain a laboratory, develop methods of studying air pollution and research, encourage research to prevent pollution and to accept and administer federal and other grants for this work.

ALSO EFFECTIVE Saturday is a new law creating a nine-member Ohio water survey committee to study various phases of water conservation and management. The non-salaried members of the committee, all residents of Ohio, will be appointed by the Governor. It will report to the Governor by December 31, 1959.

Other news effective this week Wallace said, will:

Raise to $3500 maximum loans by building and loan associations or property alteration, repair or improvement, effective Saturday. Create Salt Fork Lake in Guernsey County, effective Saturday. Permit temporary certification of teachers in private and parochial schools, effective Saturday.

PERMIT PORT authorities to issue revenue bonds, effective Saturday.

Allow the administrator of the Bureau of Workmen's Compensation to submit medical questions to the BWC medical advisory board, effective Friday.

Eliminate present minimum two cents per $100 payroll which all subject employers paid to the occupational disease fund and provides premiums be paid into such fund based upon occupational disease experience of the employers without requiring a specific minimum rate, effective tomorrow.

Encourage employment of handicapped persons, effective today. Allow issuance of a temporary motor vehicle license for $1.00, plus 25 cent deputy fee, until purchaser of motor vehicle can obtain proper title and license plate registration, effective today.

ALLOW COUNTY commissioners to submit proposed bond issues to finance plugging of abandoned oil and gas wells, effective today. Limit imprisonment of felons, between 16 and 21, in Mansfield Reformatory to those who have not previously served sentence in a federal, state or other prison or institution for conviction of a felony, effective today.

400 Teachers Hold Parley, Schools Close

PAWTUCKET, R.I. — There was no school today for Pawtucket's 10,000 school pupils as 400 members of a teachers' union held a mass meeting after failing to come to salary terms.

William C. Bray, president of the Teachers Alliance, called the meeting after an unproductive all-night session of the union's negotiators with the school board.

The school board said it would go to court to try to restrain the teachers from striking.

The school committee offered the following salary schedule, which was rejected by the union's negotiating committee:

Effective immediately a minimum of $3,400 and a maximum of $5,675; next year, $3,600 to $5,875; the following year $3,800 to $6,075. The present scale is $3,200 to $5,400.

The teachers seek a salary schedule of $3,000 to $10,000, a union shop and other benefits.

New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H. At your drugstore. Money back guarantee.

County Group May Attend Swine Event

Pickaway County farmers are reminded of Swine Day to be held at the Wooster Agriculture Experiment Station Friday. All Pickaway County farmers interested in attending this event as a county group should contact George Hamrick, county agent, for definite time of leaving and returning.

Several interesting experiments will be on display during the morning tour of the Swine Station. These experiments include a generation study of the effect of feeding all plant versus plant and animal proteins. The inclusion of Aureomycin, Hygromycin A and B, penicillin, Bacitracin, Dynafac in complete rations fed to swine on dry lot and on pasture is an experiment that will attract considerable attention. Many other experiments will be viewed.

Other interesting swine subjects will be discussed, such as the advance in swine worm control, artificial insemination of swine, and dry lot versus pasture studies.

There also will be a program for the housewife. The topic will be, "Wife's Use of Pork and Pork Products."

New Car Sales Show Increase

Reach High Point In Five Months

New car sales in Pickaway County increased during August for the first time in five months, according to figures released today by the Clerk of Courts office.

Sixty-nine new cars were sold during the month, an increase of 23 per cent over July sales. Other new motor vehicles sold included six trucks, two motor bikes, and five house trailers.

A total of 864 motor vehicles of all types, both new and used, changed hands in the county during August. The figure, although less than that of August, 1956, was the highest monthly total since May.

Automotive mortgages and liens recorded totaled 401. August cancellations of mortgages and liens totaled 314, the lowest monthly total since January and a 23 per cent drop from July cancellations.

For the second straight month, Ford led all makes in sales with 23. Sales of other makes include Chevrolet, 14; Plymouth, 10; Oldsmobile, 5; Mercury, 5; Dodge, 3; Buick, 2; Chrysler, 2; Pontiac, 1; DeSoto, 1; and Cadillac, 1.

Council Bans 24-Hour Auto Parking on City's Streets

An old city law is back on the books again. Last night City Council passed an ordinance which makes it illegal to park automobiles on the city streets for more than 24 hours at a time.

The new law is intended to rid the streets of long-distance parkers, abandoned vehicles and also make it easier for street cleaning crews to operate.

In the short meeting the solons authorized Kenneth Robbins, city solicitor, to prepare legislation which would change the name of St. Clara Ave. to Wood Lane. The matter was brought before Council by a petition signed by eight residents of the street.

Legislation also is to be prepared to accept the plat of Bowler's Subdivision, an 18 lot area in the S. Pickaway-Third St. area. The plat already is in the city and all lots have houses on them, but the area was never properly dedicated.

The matter of too much whistle blowing by Norfolk and Western trains while passing through the city was presented. Councilman Harold Clifton reported that residents of the Scioto St. and Western Ave. area are complaining that the whistle-blowing is getting worse. The Railroad Committee will discuss the matter.

The absence of Councilman Dudley Carpenter was excused.

Business Briefs

A new front was being put on the Clifton Motor Sales, Inc. building at 119 S. Court St. today. The entire first floor front will get a new stone-tile covering and new signs will be added. Jack Clifton, vice president of the auto agency, said the work is to be completed in about two weeks. No structural changes are planned for inside the building he stated.

Cool and Clear Predicted Here

Clearing and cooler but no rain is the weatherman's prediction for this area for the next 24 hours.

Skies are slated to clear tonight in face of a cooler air mass moving in. Thursday's outlook calls for fair and continued cool.

Yesterday's forecast of showers failed to hold true much to the dismay of local folks.

There wasn't much of it, but Monday's precipitation here certainly was something to shout about. In all 26 inch fell, over half as much recorded here in August. One of the driest months on record in this area, only 47 inch sprinkled over the community.

FORT WORTH, Tex. — Richard Chambers was in serious condition today after being found at the bottom of an elevator shaft where he had lain two days.

Chambers, 32, told police he fell into the shaft while seeking a place to sleep. The building was being torn down.

An unidentified woman stopped two policemen Tuesday and said she thought she heard a baby's cry coming from the building. Police investigated and found Chambers. Hospital attendants said he suffered a broken leg and severe cuts.

Labor Day Traffic Toll Is Set at 445 Killed

CHICAGO — Final tabulation of accident reports showed today that at least 445 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the Labor Day holiday weekend.

This toll exceeded by 25 the preliminary estimate of 420 made by the National Safety Council.

Although the toll surpassed last year's Labor Day toll of 435 as well, it was not a record for the holiday period. The largest traffic death toll was 461 during the 78-hour Labor Day weekend in 1951.

Flu Vaccine Priority List Is Suggested

COLUMBUS — State health officials today predicted a "high attack rate" of Asian flu in Ohio this winter, but expressed hope that a preventive vaccine would relieve the situation.

Dr. Ralph Dwork, state health director, estimated that four million adult shots of Asian flu vaccine would be available for Ohioans by the end of the year.

He suggested a priority for vaccine shots by physicians. The proposed priority would make Asian flu shots available first to doctors, nurses, laboratory and hospital personnel and others engaged in maintaining the health of a community. The second category includes those providing essential services such as communications, transportation and utilities.

Third in the priority list would be patients whose illness might be aggravated by the flu, and fourth the public at large including school children.

Dr. Dwork said a total of 267 cases of influenza have been reported in Ohio through Aug. 31 this year, but only three cases of confirmed Asian flu, all in Cleveland, are included in the total. Last year Ohio had 374 reported cases of flu for the comparable period.

U. S. Payroll Hits Record $11 Billion

WASHINGTON — Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today that the federal government's civilian payroll exceeded $11 billion last year for the first time.

Byrd, as chairman of the Joint Committee on Reduction of Non-essential Federal Expenditures, said the total for the year ended June 30 was $11,000,474,000. This compared with $10 1/2 billion in the previous fiscal year and $9 1/2 billion each for the two preceding 12-month periods.

The senator said average civilian employment during the 12 months also reached a new high of 2,394,099 persons. This was an increase of about 60,000 over the previous fiscal year.

Local Officers Arrest 163 For Drunk Driving in 1957

Local law enforcement agencies have had a busy year so far rounding up motorists driving under the influence of intoxicants.

Personal records maintained by Deputy Sheriff Robert Hoover show that 163 drivers have been convicted of this offense here since January 1. Several other motorists facing intoxicated charges have been bound to the County Grand Jury for final disposition.

The biggest roundup came in June when 33 drivers were picked up for being under the influence.

A breakdown by departments for this period shows that city police arrested 73 motorists, the sheriff's department 57, the State Highway Patrol 32, and two were booked by other law agencies.

THE USUAL procedure here is for a driver accused the first time to appear in Circleville Municipal Court. If the driver pleads guilty to the accusation, he is normally fined $100 and costs, sentenced three days in jail and has his driver's license suspended for six months.

If the motorist pleads innocent he normally is bound to the grand jury under bond set by the municipality.

Burglars Enter Church 2nd Time

The Yankeeetown Church northwest of Circleville was entered by burglars during the weekend the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department reported today. It marks the second burglary at the church within a week.

According to Deputy Robert Hoover, two chandeliers and two stove doors were taken. Entry was gained by forcing a door.

Last week burglars made off with a clock and smashed several windows.

'Work Right' Campaign Gets New Backing

Advocates of Law To Go to Mat with Labor in Legislature

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—New life is being pumped into the continuing fight for "right to work" laws in Ohio.

Balked by strong labor opposition in previous Legislatures, advocates indicate they will go to the mat on the issue in the next General Assembly.

S. D. Cadwallader of Cincinnati, chairman of the national Right to Work Committee, sent letters to Ohio lawmakers in what he termed an educational program by his group.

Early start of the program in Ohio convinces politicians that the committee plans to keep an eye on the 1958 election campaigns in which unionists will be active.

"The national Right to Work Committee of which I am chairman," wrote Cadwallader, a Baltimore & Ohio Railroad conductor, "is carrying on a fight for the principle that 'Americans must have the right, but not be compelled to join labor unions'."

"As an Ohioan I have been under considerable urging from many other wage earners to propose that our own state consider right to work legislation of the type now on the books of 18 other states."

"My contacts in Ohio indicate that enactment by the Indiana Legislature of a right to work law has stimulated wide interest in Ohio."

An Ohio proposal by Sen. Lowell Fess (R-Greene), patterned after the Indiana measure, got nowhere in the 102nd General Assembly. Buckeye labor leaders denounced the bill. One termed it a "cute way to put the handcuffs on organized labor."

Major objection centers on what labor calls proposals to outlaw union as well as closed-shop agreements.

Union-shop contracts permit companies to hire unaffiliated workers, but require new employees to join the union within a period of time, usually 30 to 60 days, to keep their jobs. A closed shop requires the hiring of union members only.

Closed shops are permitted under the railroad labor act on railroads and airlines. The Taft-Hartley Act bans closed shops, permits union shops but provides for states to pass laws against the latter.

The Indiana right to work law carries a maximum penalty of $100 fine and 10 days in jail for violators. The act bans agreements "to exclude from employment any person by reason of membership or non-membership in a labor organization, or to discharge or suspend from employment or lay off any person by reason of his refusal to join a labor organization or by reason of his failure to maintain his membership in a labor organization or by reason of his resignation or expulsion or suspension from a labor organization."

The national committee that worked for enactment of the law says its policy is set by a board of directors representing professional and working men of several states. Membership is open to "anyone who believes in the inherent right of an American citizen to work for a living without paying tribute to any private organization for the privilege."

The committee claims that right to work laws, upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court, do not work to reduce union membership or wages. Members report that union membership and wages have in-

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has been something less than vigorous in supporting federal judges who ordered public school integration in the South and then ran into opposition. Patience has been his motto.

Patience, in fact, has been one of his most persistent policies toward problems at home and abroad. He's been using it for all it's worth toward the problems arising from attempts at integration.

Eisenhower, who carefully avoids saying anything to offend Southerners, except for criticizing "extremists on both sides," has never yet said publicly he approves the Supreme Court's ban on public school segregation.

"I am for moderation," he has said, "but I am for progress." And there has been progress toward integration. Whether there would be much more if he spoke out forcefully for integration is so far one of the unknowns of history.

He used his patience again Tuesday when Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus blocked a federal court order to integrate Little Rock's Central High School by ringing it with National Guardsmen.

Faubus denied he was defying the court and said he called out the troops to keep peace and order. But he also said his action could possibly develop into a "Southwide test."

But the school board — which had been ordered by Federal Dis-

Judge Ronald N. Davies to integrate the school—interpreted Faubus' use of troops as an effort to prevent integration and ordered would-be Negro students to stay away.

Only a week ago Faubus had asked a state judge to prevent integration at Central High.

Eisenhower was asked about all this at his news conference Tuesday. He said the Justice Department was investigating and "the next decision will have to be by the lawyers and jurists."

Thus Eisenhower once again avoided becoming personally involved although this may have been cold comfort for Judge Davies, who had to stand by and see his integration order stymied.

But the judge appeared capable of standing on his own two feet. Since the school board, because of the troops, had stopped integration it faced the possibility of being found in contempt of the court's order to integrate.

So the board appealed to the judge Tuesday night. The judge promptly called the governor's hand—by ordering the board to go ahead and register the Negroes.

This left the next move up to the governor who now, if the troops in any way prevented Negro registration, could find himself in defiance of the federal government and possibly in contempt of court.

What would Eisenhower do in a case like that? He wasn't asked about it Tuesday. But a year ago he went as far as he has ever gone in explaining what he would do if a court were defied.

He didn't actually explain what he'd do. He simply said U.S. marshals could serve warrants. But how the marshals could serve a governor surrounded by troops—or force him to appear in court—is a problem Eisenhower hasn't had to face yet.

Just a year ago he then Texas governor, Allan Shivers, used Texas Rangers at a school in Mansfield, Tex., where mobs, protesting a court order for integration there, assembled to keep Negroes away.

Asked about the problem at his news conference on Sept. 5, 1956, Eisenhower said in part: "Until states show their inability or their refusal to grapple with this question (mob action that prevents integration) properly, which they haven't yet... we'd better be very careful about moving in and expediting police powers."

The mob action in Mansfield apparently was successful. Negroes weren't able to register then and now, a year later, none is registered at the school. Eisenhower has said the Supreme Court's word is law and he's bound to uphold the law.

But when asked that same day, Sept. 5 a year ago, if he endorsed the court's anti-segregation ruling, Eisenhower said, "I think it makes no difference whether or not I endorse it." He said he must uphold the Constitution.

Decorator, Dozer Driver Blamed as 5 Garages Vanish

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—Five garages are missing in nearby Concordville today and state police blame it on an indignant interior decorator, an angry-go-lucky bulldozer driver and a few beers.

The garages used to be behind the home of Donald Baeshore, 46, the decorator. He thought they were an eyesore.

State Police Pvt. Earl Glasser said today Baeshore was talking about them over some beers in a bar two weeks ago with a bulldozer operator, Charles Bennett.

Glasser said Bennett offered to get rid of the offending garages. The garages were pushed into a nearby ravine and all but buried beneath five tons of dirt. The biggest clue to their disappearance, Glasser said, was the bulldozer tracks.

The tracks led to Bennett, he said, and Bennett led to Baeshore. Glasser led both men to Justice of the Peace A. Randall Matheus, who held them in $1,000 bail each for a further hearing on malicious mischief charges.

The garages were owned by Concord Foods, Inc., which took a dim view of the whole thing.

Safe Undamaged, But Cash Is Gone

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Oilman Wayne Hincley figured that if he posted the combination on the outside of his safe, would-be thieves wouldn't damage the safe.

He was so right. Burglars used the combination to get at $276 in cash and $3,881 in checks.

New Law Permits High Pay For U. S. Military Nurses

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP)—A little publicized act of Congress has opened up vast new opportunities — at higher pay—for military nurses and medical specialists.

Probably the most significant feature of the new Army-Navy-Air Force Nurse Career Incentive Act is the number of nurses who now may be promoted to the rank of major or equivalent. The Army for instance, formerly was allowed only 75 nurse majors. It now may promote an unrestricted number to that rank, with base pay of $400.15 per month plus various allowances.

Lt. Col. Margaret Harper, assistant chief of the Army Nurse Corps, says the new law is "one of the greatest milestones reached by the military nurse in her whole evolutionary process."

"In fact, I consider it the biggest step ever taken to recognize the role and place of the nurse in the military services," Col. Harper said. "It is not only a recognition of the military nurse, who is serving military personnel and their families practically any place in the world, but it is a tribute to the profession in general."

Col. Harper added that the bill will help the Army meet its need for nurses today by attracting more women to the Army Nurse Corps and help keep more military nurses in the service. The same conviction is held by Navy and Air Force nurse officers.

Up to now Army, Navy and Air Force nurses have been commissioned in the grades of second lieutenant through captain, with promotions depending mostly on vacancies. Chiefs of the Army and Air Force Nurse Corps hold the temporary rank of colonel and the director of the Navy Nurse Corps the temporary equivalent rank of captain.

Col. Harper, for 16 years an Army nurse, with World War II service in the Southwest Pacific and Western Europe, said that under the new legislation the Army Nurse Corps can promote five nurses to permanent colonel. And, whereas the corps was allowed but one regular lieutenant colonel before the passage of the bill, it can now have 107.

Medical specialists, such as dietitians, occupational therapists and physical therapists have comparable promotion opportunities.

Naturally, along with the pride that comes from professional recognition is the satisfaction of pay increases with higher rank and the increase in income nurses will get when they retire.

There are some 8,900 nurses and medical specialists on duty with the Army, Navy and Air Force.

The largest number, approximately 3,800 are with the Army. "The military nurse," says Col. Harper, "is as essential as the man with the gun on his shoulder."

She should have the same opportunities to advance professionally, along with the same advantages covered by such promotions.

Elderly Pair Killed In Auto-Truck Crash

ELYRIA (AP)—A truck and an auto carrying three persons to a funeral collided near here Tuesday, causing two deaths.

Dwight E. Rogers, 81, of Lorain, and his wife Bessie, 73, were killed. Her brother, William E. Cleverdon, 79, of Lakewood driver of the car, was injured.

The three were on their way to Lodi to attend the funeral of Mrs. Rogers' aunt. Their car apparently passed a stop sign and smashed into the truck.

Patti Page Shuns Feudin'

Singer Set To Star On New TV Program

By WILLIAM GLOVER

NEW YORK (AP)—Patti Page, a blonde bundle of song, doesn't want to go feudin' and fightin' with anyone.

Miss Page, debuting soon as star of a new hour-long television show, "The Big Record," is determined to avoid such customary aspects of seeking major video attention.

"I haven't even thought about ratings," she avers.

"After all, you've just got to make up your mind that you never are going to be able to please just everybody."

Because a major trend of TV planning this season, along with cowboy shows, is the boom in shows spotlighting popular singers, Patti realizes that public tiffing with one or more rivals might appear to be inevitable.

"I'm not mad at anybody and I'm not going to be," says the

"I'm not even sure I'd want to get to be the top show in the ratings," she adds, "because then it seems you've just got to get in a feud."

Aside from such factors, Miss Page glows enthusiastically over "The Big Record" which takes over the CBS-TV network Wednesday evenings from 8 to 9 p.m. (E.D.T.) starting Sept. 18.

The show, stressing great names of the disc-making industry in person each week, will have Patti introducing an average of nine guests per outing.

In an emergency, the value of medicine can hardly be reckoned in dollars. Medicine is priceless when needed.

Yet it is an interesting fact that nationally the average cost of a pharmaceutical prescription is about $2.50 — and more than half of all prescriptions cost less than $2.00. Although higher than 20 years ago, the increase in the cost of medicine lags far behind that of other, and less essential, commodities.

When you purchase a prescription, you are sharing in the fruits of scientific research. You are getting today's best buy.

Giants Move Well Worth It

Nothing has underlined more dramatically the depths of the currents that are radically changing the face of the grand old game of baseball than the decision of the New York Giants to move all the way across the continent to San Francisco. This move marks, more than any of the rest, what has happened to baseball as the East knew it a generation ago.

The Giants were an institution as old as major league baseball itself. They set up shop on Cogan's Bluff in 1876, a full 27 years before the New York Yankees came to town. Under John McGraw they compiled one of the proudest records of any team in baseball.

The Polo Grounds, where they played, was baseball's most famous park. Now all that is being swept into the scrapbooks and statistics of the past.

Baseball has suffered and survived many shocks in the last few years. The decline of the minor leagues has sharply diminished its training fields and recruiting grounds. The advent of television, the crush of modern auto traffic, and the lack of parking space around parks constructed for the requirements of a different age have all combined to keep the customers at home instead of in the stands.

Three major leagues teams have already fled to greener pastures—Boston's Braves to Milwaukee, Connie Mack's Athletics to Kansas City, and the St. Louis Browns to Baltimore—and they have all found the grazing good in these new scenes. Milwaukee, in particular, has turned up hordes of new baseball fans as fanatic as those who made baseball the national game early in the century.

The Giants count on riding a wave of the same kind of enthusiasm at San Francisco and there is little doubt that they have calculated rightly. The question that has yet to be answered is, how long will it last? Will this shift, and the pending move of the Brooklyn Dodgers to Los Angeles, provide baseball with more than a temporary shot in the arm?

Whatever the answers, it seems clear that baseball must keep pace with the changing times and with the shifts in population to hold its time-honored place on the American scene.

If this is a gamble which tears sentimental bonds, it is well worth the risk to preserve an institution which was slowly withering in the old parks where it had flourished in years gone by.

Are Two Jobs Too Many?

I have had more fan-mail, as it is called, in response to my article on moonlighting than on most other recent ones. Many readers disagree with my views on the subject, holding that I am close to a criminal, a moron, a fool, an idiot, etc., etc. for believing that a man should hold more than one job and make as much money as he can.

Times sure have changed. The go-getter has become a forgotten American. What one wants to do these days is sit on his hands and watch the world go by. E. J. Sebold of Syracuse, New York, has the 168 hours of a week carefully budgeted:

26 sleeping
21 eating
4 to & from work
7 miscellaneous (such as shopping, recreation, barber shop and a hundred other things)

LAFF-A-DAY

"Takes after his father."

Heart Disease 'Catching'

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Heart diseases can be "catching."

Of course, I don't mean they are contagious. You can't "catch" heart disease from anyone, but, under certain circumstances, you might "catch" similar symptoms.

For example, let's say that a close relative or friend, or maybe a business partner, becomes a victim of heart disease.

If you are a person with strong emotions, you might actually develop symptoms which closely resemble organic cardiac disease.

The so-called "soldier's heart" is a good example of what I mean. We know that this ailment results from essential changes in the hypothalamus, the gland that controls the autonomic nervous system.

Sometimes the emotional upheavals are so marked that they cause changes in electrocardiograph reading that are virtually impossible to distinguish from those following true organic disease.

In fact, a New York City internist, Dr. Maxwell L. Gelfand, goes so far as to state that the majority of patients who go to a doctor with heart symptoms do not show any evidence of organic cardiac disorder.

Rather, he says in an article in for the sociologist; maybe it belongs to the science of psychiatry. Certainly this lady in Brooklyn who has written so eloquently does not have the answer. A father can work lots of overtime and produce a good family; a father can be an idle good-for-nothing living on his wife (rich or a working woman), and produce a good family.

There are no rules that anyone knows about that apply to all human beings.

Perhaps this is not a problem

a recent issue of Medical Times, they are suffering from emotional disturbances.

There is convincing evidence, he emphasizes, that certain serious and even fatal types of heart disease can be produced solely by emotional distress.

Although the heart has a great capacity to absorb such stress, we have reason to believe that strong emotional reactions are enough to

Some Color for Manhattan

NEW YORK (AP)—Every American has had, at one time or another a weekend ambition "to paint the town red."

Nobody but Louis J. Glickman, however, has seriously set out to erect a vermilion colored skyscraper in Manhattan.

His proposal to tear down historic Carnegie Hall, which he bought for $5 million, and replace it with a bright red 44-story, $24 million office building has caught the public fancy.

People want to know who Glickman is, and why he wants to put up a tower that will look like an oversized Bloody Mary.

"Oh, I just happened to be wearing a red tie the day I closed the deal," Glickman jokes casually. Then, he explains:

"Color is getting to play such an important part in our lives, in everything from refrigerators to automobiles, that I thought a vermilion building would relieve some of the drabness of Manhattan and give the town a shot in the arm."

The venture is typical of Glickman, whose formula for success is "imagination mixed with prudent daring."

Glickman is one of the nation's leading real estate syndicate operators. Since the end of World War II Glickman, rivaled perhaps only by Bill Zeckendorf in size of his real estate operations, has closed deals totaling more than half a billion dollars. His firm owns properties valued at more than $200 million in 19 cities.

"He goes around the country buying buildings like bunches of bananas," one real estate editor wrote of him.

Glickman, now 52, will even close a deal while playing golf or riding horseback, his favorite

7 Cincinnati Radio Aides Dismissed

CINCINNATI (AP)—Seven disc jockeys and announcers who left their microphones in a strike over a new contract at radio station WKCY have been fired.

Jonas Katz, attorney for the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, the union involved, said:

"We consider this a deliberate violation of the Taft-Hartley Law and an attempt to punish these individuals for seeking to improve their wages and working conditions."

Katz said he will seek redress for the seven through the National Labor Relations Board.

Charles Topmiller, president of L. B. Wilson, Inc., which owns WKCY, confirmed he had sent the dismissal letters to the seven.

Pipe Falls, Kills Man

NEWARK (AP)—A 20-pound pipe fell 100 feet from a silo Tuesday, striking Avery J. Martin, 65, of near Hebron, on the head and killing him. The pipe fell from a ladder where workmen, who were repairing the silo, placed it.

sports. He is known in the trade as a "romancer," a man who can take a piece of rundown property and improve it so that it will return more revenue.

"To be successful in real estate you have to be 'optimistic—a bull,'" said Glickman, who is as self-confident as an elephant in a flea circus.

Unlike many civic pessimists who feel that the flight to the suburbs will turn many American cities into business cemeteries, Glickman feels downtown urban areas are making a strong comeback in cities which have undertaken modernization programs.

"The trouble is we are just beginning now to do the kind of planned building we should have begun 50 years ago," he remarked. "But the flight of business to the suburbs is over."

"Business firms have found that they can't get and hold the kind of help they want in the suburbs. They can find it only in the city."

Some critics believe that Manhattan has overbuilt in a post-war construction program of new office and apartment buildings approaching the billion dollar mark.

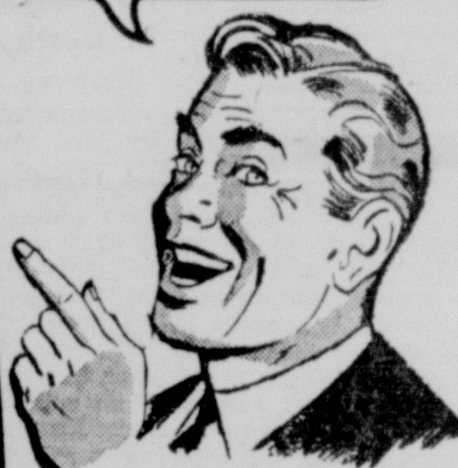

"The answer is that they are still finding plenty of tenants," said Glickman. "There is no reason for the program to stop. I know of several deals, now being negotiated and not yet announced, for another $150 million in construction in the Park-Fifth Avenues area."

"Manhattan and other cities will grow larger, not smaller. There are plenty of people in the suburbs who want to come back to the cities—if buildings can be put up for them. The best investment on earth is still earth."

Big Companies Get Ready for Sales Parleys

Annual Conventions Starting Now That Vacations Are Over

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Vacation days are over for most Americans but the season for sales conventions and trips as a reward for selling is just catching its second wind.

Full dress sales meetings come to around 2,500 a year. Add in the regional conventions and the pep conclaves of small companies and the number is estimated as high as 70,000 by the half dozen or so agencies that run such affairs for corporations.

The big national gatherings average out at a cost of $30,000 a year for big companies, although a convening of the corporate clan at Miami Beach may go as high as $220,000. The total spent on national sales conventions is estimated as 150 million dollars a year.

Incentive selling with a trip as the prize is on the increase. The average trip is for a week to 10 days with wives usually included.

Some of these come high. Example: 700 appliance dealers in the general area of New York City vied for five months to increase sales 25 per cent. The value of the prizes totaled $300,000, involving 300 free trips to Europe for winning salesmen and their wives.

One household appliance maker reports staging a 13 week promotion that sold 20 million dollars of its products. The cost of the campaign and the prize trips came to less than five per cent of the added sales volume.

How much industry spends each year on these incentive selling contests isn't known, but Martin B. Iger, who heads a convention service, says it must run into millions of dollars.

The trips, unlike the sales conventions, are strictly pleasure outings but pay for themselves by the increases sales that precede and sometimes follow them. Salesmen like them for many reasons—one being that they pay no income tax on the cost of the trip, although they would have to pay a tax if the prize had been in cash.

Iger says he once got a call from a man who had just returned from a Miami Beach corporate outing with the wrong suitcase. Even more than getting his own luggage back was his urge to get rid of the one he'd picked up by mistake—it contained 50 little live turtles, painted green and inscribed "Welcome to Miami."

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am a nurse writing in behalf of a patient of mine. She is grieving her life away.

Please express your opinion of a man who was separated from his wife, then fell in love with this girl who trusted him with all her heart; told her he had a divorce, and married her.

Several years later she found he had lied about the divorce. She was heartbroken and deeply ashamed, but loves him still. Would you call him honorable and worthy of love and grief?

J. P.

DEAR J.P.: If human beings had to be worthy of love before being loved, I'm afraid that very few of us would ever be loved—at the start. However, love is a miracle worker that in some cases, at least, enables individuals to really grow up to their higher nature, when they might be said to merit love.

But in any case, love, when it is love, exists in its own right; and is dispensed without price. That is to say, with no strings attached; with no qualifications; without a bargain being struck. With-

Lauren Bacall Showing Nerve

Actress Back on Job After Death of Bogey

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It was Lauren Bacall's first day at work since the death of Humphrey Bogart, and she was nervous.

"Nervous as I can possibly be," she confessed in her half-kidding, half-serious way. "This is the first time I've started a picture without having Bogey say, 'Good luck, Baby.' It's kinda tough, you know."

The whole set knew, and everyone admired her courage. It was her first day on "Our Love" in which she stars with Robert Stack. "It's a real tearjerker," she reported. "I die in it and get to run the gamut of my emotions—from A to B."

I watched her rehearse her first scene, in which she and Stack meet. She tossed it off with skill. Still, she had nerves.

"I'm glad to be going back to work," she said. "It gives me something to keep myself busy, and I need that desperately. All I've had to do is sit and think. If I hadn't had the children, I would have been in really bad shape."

Her formula for the future is more work. "I'd like to go right into another picture if I can find one," she said. "I think work is a good thing for me."

"I'm going to make a habit of going to New York regularly. You have the theater in New York. A lot of things to do. Hollywood is no place for a single woman."

Youthful Enthusiasm Tagged Key to Fox Studio's Success

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The biggest shot in the arm for the ailing film industry has been 20th Century-Fox's full production policy.

At a time when other studios have made no pictures in months (RKO, Republic) and others are limping along with scant filming, the Fox lot has been jumping. I caught up with production boss Buddy Adler to see how he manages to battle the trend.

The white-haired, handsome executive was visiting one of the sets on his bustling lot. A graduate of magazines and movie shorts, he is the successful producer ("From Here to Eternity") who succeeded Darryl Zanuck as headman.

The secret, he indicated, is youthful enthusiasm.

"You've got to have excitement for this business to make good pictures," he said. "The ones who are doing important things are mainly the newcomers. They're discovering new things and trying new approaches. Many of the veterans who have made their mint are tired and slowing down." For that reason, he said, he's bringing newcomers into the production end. Significantly, most of them are writers.

"I have great faith in writers," said Adler, who was one himself. "They are the really indispensable creators in this business. Even the greatest of directors can't make a great picture unless he has a great script."

In the Adler future book are some hot properties, including at least two blockbusters. One is "Peyton Place," which will run three hours and may be released as a roadshow. The other is the third of the studio's Rodgers and Hammerstein musicals, "South Pacific."

The 27th Annual Convention of the Ohio Association of Garden Clubs is being held at the Student Union Building at Ohio State University Thursday, and Friday. All members of the Association and their friends are invited to attend.

Registration starts at 9:00 a. m. Thursday in the north hallway of the first floor.

A program and yearbook clinic will be conducted at 10:00 a. m. by Mrs. John Sander, state program chairman. Another clinic on publicity, radio, and TV will be conducted by Mrs. Leo Eberhardt, publicity chairman. For those who do not wish to attend these clinics transportation will be furnished for a tour of the Park of Roses and several gardens in nearby Worthington.

A demonstration "How to Make Cossages" will be given by Mrs. James Titus Jr. in the ballroom at 11:00 a. m.

The convention will open at 1:30 p. m. with Mrs. C. P. Sticksel presiding in place of the president, Mrs. Frederick Wassmann, who is in the hospital with a broken back.

The main speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Peggie Schulz whose topic will be "Plants in the Home." Following her talk, part of which will be illustrated, will be a Garden and House Plant Clinic conducted by Mrs. Schulz, Mrs. V. R. Frederick, Mrs. Wm. H. Pavey, and Professor Victor H. Ries.

The banquet will start at 6:00 p. m. The main speaker for the evening is Dr. John Creech of the U. S. Plant Introduction Gardens, whose topic will be "Plant hunting in Japan." He will have many fascinating kodachromes to describe the new plants that he has seen and sent back for use in American gardens.

Following Dr. Creech's talk will be the presentation of the Master Gardener Award, the Victor H. Ries Award to Outstanding Garden Club, and the Program and Yearbook awards.

The Friday morning session, will start at 9:15 a. m. with the business session followed by a presentation of the 1957 Slide Contest winners. Following this there will be an unusual opportunity to hear Mr. John Fish of the Eastman Kodak Company give an illustrated talk on "How to Take Good Pictures."

Following lunch at 12:30 p. m. Dr. Novice G. Fawcett of Ohio University will extend the greetings from the University. The retiring regional directors will then introduce their successors. This will be followed by the presentation of awards for Outstanding Junior Gardener, Outstanding Junior Garden Club, Publicity Scrapbooks, Flower Shows and Civic Planting. Following the adjournment at 3:00 p. m. transportation will be furnished for a reception and tea at the Governor's Mansion.

Floyd Bartley, Pickaway County naturalist has been invited to display a collection of mounted wild flowers at the convention.

Miss Helen Hoffman, State radio and television chairman, will not be able to participate in the publicity clinic held Thursday morning on account of her teaching duties. She will, however, attend the banquet Thursday evening.

Representing the Circleville Garden Club will be Mrs. Donald H. Watt and Floyd Bartley incoming president.

Planning to go from the Deer-creek club are Mrs. Edward Schleich, Mrs. Ted Corcoran and Mrs. Dorsey Bumgardner.

Mrs. Guy Gulick, Mrs. Albert Alloy and Mrs. Francis Hoover will attend from the Commercial Point Garden Club.

The following members are planning to go from Monrovia Garden Club: Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Adrian Liston, Mrs. Lloyd Neff, Mrs. William Snyder, Mrs. Herman Porter and Mrs. Charles Flemming.

Soliqua Garden Club, Ashville will be represented by Mrs. Harry Trump, Mrs. C. W. Hedges, Mrs. Glenn Rinehart, Mrs. Homer Peters and Mrs. James Hott.

Others attending from Ashville and community are Mrs. C. O. Caldwell, Mrs. Isaac Miller and Mrs. Robert Knobe.

Mrs. Armstrong Entertains OES Past Matrons

Mrs. George H. Armstrong entertained the Past Matrons' Circle of Evergreen Chapter No. 169 O. E. S. of Adelphi to a Breakfast at 11:30 a. m. at the Pickaway Arms, Saturday.

Following the breakfast the group was invited to the Armstrong home in Saltcreek Township for an afternoon party. Contest were enjoyed, prizes awarded and refreshments served.

Members present were: Mrs. J. L. Chilcote, Mrs. E. H. Fetherolf, Mrs. George Bowers, Mrs. Robert Bowers, Mrs. Winifred Dumm, Mrs. Herbert Goode, Mrs. E. E. Hemmeger, Mrs. F. M. Bowsher, Mrs. R. H. Bowsher, Miss Florence Bowsher.

The guests were: Mrs. Marie Hamilton, Past Grand Matron, Circleville, Mrs. Marjorie Kuntzman, Deputy Grand Matron and Mrs. Howard Spencer of Frankfort, Mrs. Thomas Hockman, Mrs. Lloyd Pontious, Mrs. Ralph Patterson Jr., Mrs. P. D. Armstrong, Mrs. David Pontious, Mrs. George Ruhl, Mrs. Fillmore Hart, Patricia and Carolyn Hart.

Miss Sweetman Home From New York

Miss Jane Sweetman, 374 E. Main St., returned Tuesday from New York City where she was a guest at Hotel New Yorker.

Miss Sweetman says she found New York very exciting. She took bus trips, boat trips, saw the Mayflower, visited a French Liner, SS Libertas, saw the Radio City Rockettes and "Around the World in Eighty Days".

Former Girl Scout Troop Holds First Reunion

Honors Bride-Elect Miss Evelyn Lutz

The reunion of Girl Scout Troop 4 was the occasion for a shower honoring Miss Evelyn Lutz whose approaching marriage to Mr. Richard Dunham will be an event of September 9.

The luncheon was held at the Pickaway Arms Saturday and was the troop's first reunion.

A green and yellow color scheme was carried out in the decorations.

Following the luncheon Miss Lutz was presented gifts at a surprise personal shower.

Each person at the reunion told about her activities and family while snap shots were viewed. The guest of honor who will leave with her husband for Cambodia right after the wedding spoke of her future plans and talked about Cambodia.

Twelve former girl scouts were present for the reunion of the old troop which was outstanding in its activities and achievements that the troop number "4" has been saved exclusively for this troop. They were: Jean Burns Goodchild, Ann Curtin Boardman, Carolyn Herrmann McCoy, Amelia Lemley Garner, Emily Lutz, Evelyn Lutz, Rhea Jean Mason Crist, Ann Moeller Koch (St. Louis, Mo.), Phyllis Weller Struckman, Anna Marie Workman Shuster (Waverly), Ruth Workman McMillen (Columbus), and Ruth Stout, leader of Troop 4. A gift was sent by Christine Schreiner Morgan who could not attend.

Troop 4, under the leadership of Miss Ruth Stout, was at one time a lone troop. It was unique in that its members held longer individual and troop memberships than any troop in the Kenosha Region.

In addition to the wide range of the scouting program activities the troop participated in many outdoor events and presented Christmas, musical, historical and campfire programs.

A service committee was established and under the supervision of the troop committee the girls rendered hundreds of hours of community and national services. The troop's records of achievement and service were outstanding.

In January 1945 the troop committee, in cooperation with the

McClure-Carter Wedding Date Set for Sept. 14

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McClure of Spring Hollow Road, Circleville, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Darrell Carter of Route 2, Circleville.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Circleville High School and is now employed as secretary to J. Wray Henry, principal of Circleville High School.

Mr. Carter, also a graduate of Circleville High School, is engaged in farming. The wedding will take place Sept. 14 at 7:30 p. m. at the First Methodist Church.

Loyal Daughters Class Meets

Twenty-two members and one guest were present for the regular meeting of the Loyal Daughters Class of the First Evangelical United Brethren Church, held in the Service Center recently.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Edwin Richardson, who opened with prayer and scripture and read two articles called "God Gives Us a Life" and "Be a Witness."

Songs sung by the class were: "Take My Life and Let It Be", and "Living for Jesus". Mrs. Cleon Webb presided at the business session.

Mrs. Webb read a poem called "Our Good Neighbor".

At the close of the session, refreshments were served by: Mrs. Chester Starkey, Mrs. Mace Overly, Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Paul Dawson.

committee of its sister Troop 1, set about the formation of the Circleville and Pickaway County Girl Scout Association.

By May of that year, because the members had reached the age limit for scouts and because of personal plans, the troop disbanded. A supper and ceremony was held at the new headquarters.

Spahn In Line For Leading Pitcher Award

Sanford Given Nod For National Loop Rookie Hurler Crown

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wonderful Warren Spahn, now the National League's all-time southpaw shutout king, has the edge for the Pitcher of the Year award today while right-hander Jack Sanford, Philadelphia's late-comer, likely will have to be satisfied with the league's rookie citation.

Spahn, the 36-year-old master of Milwaukee's first-place Braves, moved ahead of Sanford and left-hander Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox and gained his 41st career shutout Tuesday in an 8-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

It was Spahn's 18th victory, matching Pierce for the major league lead, and kept the easy-running Braves 8½ games ahead of the second-place St. Louis Cardinals, who clobbered Cincinnati, 14-4.

Sanford, a 28-year-old rookie, missed a big bid to keep pace in victories when he was lifted for an eighth-inning pinchhitter as the Phils took a 12-inning, 3-2 victory over Brooklyn.

In the American League, New York's "struggling" Yankees regained a 5½-game lead with a 2-0 victory at Baltimore where Detroit chilled the second-place White Sox 4-2 in 12 innings. Those were the only AL games scheduled.

The New York Giants defeated Pittsburgh 6-5 in 12 in the other NL game.

Spahn got past the pesky seventh-place Cubs with a six-hitter, striking out five and walking only one. Southpaw Dick Littlefield matched Spahn's whitewash job for six frames, then dropped his third in a five-run seventh with three of the scores unearned.

Hank Aaron then made it a romp with his 39th homer, good for three runs, in the eighth.

The NL record for career shutouts was set at 90 by Grover Cleveland Alexander.

Sanford was tagged for both Brooklyn runs and the three meager hits the Dodgers managed, two by Gil Hodges, Dick Farrell and Bob Miller, who pitched the 12th, no-hit the Brooks over the last five with Farrell winning his seventh.

The Phils had only three hits for eight, but Harry Anderson then junked Don Drysdale's bid for a second consecutive shutout with a two-run, two-out homer in the ninth that tied it. Ex-Dodger Chico Fernandez tripled and Willie Jones, batting for Farrell, hit a long fly for the clincher.

It was a base-running boner that

U.S. To Send Its 'Oldsters' After Davis Cup This Year

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States will send the oldest Davis Cup team in its history to Australia this year in a try to recapture the famed tennis trophy.

The squad will consist of Gardner Mulloy, 43, of Miami; Vic Seixas, 34, of Philadelphia; Budge Patty, 33, of Paris and Los Angeles and the "baby" of the team, Ham Richardson, 24, of Westfield, N. J.—if he's willing to leave his wife at home.

The Davis Cup selection committee, headed by Chauncey Steele of Cambridge, Mass., meets Friday to mull over the problem, but its decision is cut and dried, it was learned today.

Neither Renville McManis, president of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Assn., nor Bill Talbert, captain of the U. S. team, would tip their hand, but it's pretty well known around the West Side Tennis Club saved it for the Phils as Charlie Neal missed third and was tagged out after apparently scoring on his RBI double in the seventh that made it 2-0.

The Cardinals rallied loser Joe Nuxhall and five relievers for 16 hits. They scored eight, two on Del Ennis' 18th homer, in the first two frames. Wilmer Mizell, who doubled home three runs, was tagged for solo home runs by Pete Whisenant and Smokey Burgess, but hung on with a 10-hitter.

Bill Skowron's bat won for the Yankees. He had two of their three hits, one his 17th home run, over the first seven innings, then over the first seven added an RBI single in the ninth off Billy Loes. Tom Sturdivant won his 13th, but needed ninth-inning relief from Sal Maglie, who retired the side in his Yankee debut.

Mickey Mantle was 0-for-4, losing three points for a .370 average in his bat race with Ted Williams. The Boston thumper, hitting .376, will miss the two-game series opener at Yankee Stadium tonight because of a virus infection.

Al Kaline thumped the White Sox, swatting his 21st home run, to lead off the 11th. He also singled home a run in the first off Bob (No-Hit) Keegan. Gerry Staley lost in relief for a 5-1 record. Billy Hoelt won his seventh with an eight-hitter, giving up homers to Larry Doby and Walt Dropo.

Home runs by Willie Mays, Danny O'Connell and Valmy Thomas brought the Giants a 5-all tie, then Ray Jablonski lofted a sacrifice fly after two walks and an error had loaded the bases.

the trend that official thought is taking.

U. S. tennis brass believes, with Lew Hoad and Ken Rosewall no longer available to the Aussies, that this may be the year to regain the famed international bowl.

So there will be no experimenting with youngsters. America will send its oldest and wisest heads down under on the theory that they might outmaneuver Australia's young kids, who will be making their first Davis Cup appearance.

Patty, although not as fast and perhaps not as sharp as in the days when he was good enough to win Wimbledon (1950), remains the craftiest of all amateur courtmen. He plays every point and every game like a racket-swinging machine, impervious to outside influences and impossible to nettle.

On a given day, the court observers say, he can beat any amateur in the world.

Seixas, veteran of five Davis Cup challenge rounds, is one of the sport's great battlers. Hoad recently said, "of all the players I've met, I consider Seixas the most dangerous—he never quits."

Mulloy is a doubles specialist who has distinguished himself in tandem play.

Richardson has made three trips to Australia and if unbothered by the leg injury which cropped up in the National tournament this week could be formidable in singles.

There is a hitch here, Richardson wants to take his wife. U. S. officials frown on this. If Richardson persists in his attitude, a substitution will be made.

Herb Score Hopes To Pitch Soon

CLEVELAND (AP)—Southpaw Herb Score says he will pitch again "as soon as I think my depth perception is good enough—this month, I hope."

It will be four months on Saturday since the Cleveland Indians' star was felled by a liner off the bat of Gil McDougald in a night game here with the New York Yankees. The ball hit him flush in the right eye and caused the retina to swell.

"I feel all right, and I can see pretty well," Score said Tuesday night. "In fact, I can see a lot better than I could a few months ago. But when I am on the mound I have trouble picking up the ball as it leaves the bat."

Lopez Says His Chisox To Win Yet

DETROIT (AP)—Al Lopez, who should be accustomed by now to finishing second to the New York Yankees, stubbornly maintains that his Chicago White Sox still can catch the league leaders—"with a little luck."

Lopez finished second to the Yankees five times in his six years as manager of the Cleveland Indians, and barring a miracle of sorts, he will do it again in his first year at the White Sox helm.

"We're not dead yet," he said Tuesday after his club lost another game to the Detroit Tigers. "We're only five games behind in the loss column and we have 22 games to play. So we're still in the."

But Manager Casey Stengel's biggest worry about whether his Yankees can hold their 5½-game lead in the American League seems to be injuries to his team.

"If that fella is all right, well, if he isn't we're in a bad plight," The "fella" he pointed to in the batting practice cage was Mickey Mantle.

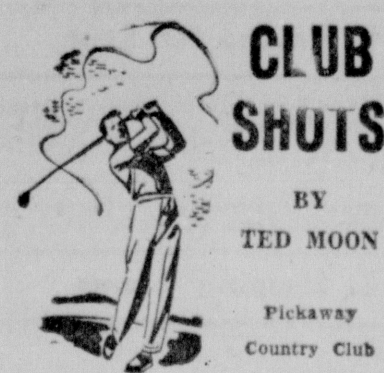

Mantle isn't "all right" and it's showing in the Yankee performance. The great hitting outfielder has been suffering with aching shins since a series in Kansas City Aug. 20-22. The Yankees have lost seven of their last 13 games.

Zatkoff Chills Browns-Rams Deal

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A trade of linebacker Roger Zatkoff of the Cleveland Browns for quarterback Rudy Bukich of the Los Angeles Rams was made and canceled in a space of seven hours.

The reason was Zatkoff's assertion Tuesday night that he would go home to Detroit rather than report to the Rams. He said he wants to stay with a Midwest team so he can be with his family.

General Manager Pete Rozelle of the Rams said he and coach Paul Brown of Cleveland called off the deal by mutual consent.

Maxine Leroy is the new women's club champion by virtue of a 5-3 win over tournament favorite June Climer.

Olin McDaniel shot his best 9-hole score of 41 and followed with a 47 for the second nine for a best ever 18-hole 88.

A 9-hole 46 was recorded Thursday by Patsy Blake, representing her best effort of the season.

An 18-hole 84 this week was the best ever round for Bob Shadley.

Wes Edstrom had his first birdie on No. 2 by sinking a long nine iron shot for the deuce.

Judge Guy Cline played golf for the first time in his life recently, shooting a neat 61 for nine holes.

Dave Yates, playing some nice golf, broke 90 for the first time in his career.

The Labor Day Calcutta results show that F. O. Patrick and Joe Adkins and Rick Spires and Hiram Hatcher ended in a deadlock with a net 68. Third place went to George Hamrick and Bill Blake with a net 68. Fourth place was a deadlock between Ted Moon and Art Marshall and Jack LeRoy and Jack Clifton with a net 69.

Women's Day results for last Thursday are as follows: first—Patsy Blake and Mrs. Chelkowsky, net 65; second—Edna Timmons and Norma Drennan, net 67; Jane Climer, low putts; Irma Hedges, second low putts; Helen McGuire and Alma Crites, tied for third low putts.

Tigers Drill For Friday Practice Test

Circleville High's football squad was hard at work yesterday preparing for Friday night's pigskin preview with the chieftains of Logan High School.

Coach Tom Bennett had the Tigers going through all phases of practice drills in an effort to sharpen their attack for the Friday night encounter.

Operating from a basic split T, quarterback Mike Hosler led the No. 1 unit through a complete series of running plays with a sharp passing attack thrown in between. The squad also drilled in kick-off and punting situations.

So far the No. 1 backfield has Hosler at Quarterback, Ray Pifer at left half, Walt Arledge at right half and Dick Bircher at fullback. Linemen include Jon Pacher and Larry Hannahs at ends, Terry Barthelmas, Bill Perkins and John Wright at tackles, Asa Elesa and Bob Barnhart at guards and Fred Sines at center.

Fans also will get a look at the CHS marching band during Friday night's preview.

Ted Williams Felled With Infection

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams was bedded with a respiratory infection at home today as the Red Sox flew to New York for a two-game series with the Yankees.

Dr. Ralph McCarthy, Red Sox physician, said Tuesday night Williams still was running a slight temperature and "I'm not going to allow him to go to New York."

Williams, who celebrated his 39th birthday last Friday, was forced out of the starting lineup the next night in Baltimore. He leads New York's Mickey Mantle by six points—376 to 370—in their battle for the American League batting title.

Fullmer-Vejar Bout Due on TV Tonight

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP)—Gene Fullmer of West Jordan and Chico Vejar of Stamford, Conn., meet tonight in a 10-round televised fight which each hopes might put him in line for a title shot.

Fullmer, the pressing, windmill type mauler who won the 160-pound title from Sugar Ray Robinson last January only to lose it in a return-bout knockout four months later, was favored 3-1. The No. 1 challenger hoped an impressive win would get him another title shot at the winner of the Robinson-Carmen Basilio fight.

Vejar, an active campaigner always popular on TV, hoped a victory over the Utah strong boy would catapult him into the top 10.

'Got It Made'

Braves 'Won't Flub' Flag Race This Time

Editor's Note: Following is the first in a series of articles leading up to the 1957 World Series.

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves are in. They're not going to flub it again.

Red faced Fred Haney, the manager, turns pale at the mere mention of pennant. He knocks on wood, tugs at the top of each ear, spits over his left shoulder and mutters half angrily:

"I don't know anything about any pennant. The only thing I'm saying now is we're playing them one game at a time and we'll see what happens. This is the funniest league I've ever seen. I keep cautioning my players against overconfidence. To hell with the standings. I tell them just to go out and play today's game."

Despite Haney's conservative talk, the pennant fever in Milwaukee is at an all time high.

The players themselves act like a team with the pennant in their teeth. It is this air of confidence, more so than the victories themselves, that is causing many Milwaukeeans to consider the pennant race as all over but the celebrating.

Certainly it's still possible for the Braves to lose. But it's highly unlikely that they will and Haney knows it.

"This is not 1956," he declared. "Essentially it is the same club that lost to Brooklyn last year but in many ways it is a far different club. For one thing, the attitude is different. It is more determined, more polished, more mature and it has worked much harder. Losing last year taught them a great deal. A team can't go through what those fellows went through last year without learning."

"Last year there wasn't a more disgusted group of players than the ones who flew back to Milwaukee after we blew the pennant in St. Louis. No one dreamed that there would be any people meeting us at the airport."

"Not only were there 20,000 at the airport but instead of booing us for losing, they put their arms around us and hugged us. You just can't experience something like that and not be moved. That demonstration undoubtedly made the team more determined this year."

3-Man Scramble On For Buck Halback

Boxing Club Plans High Court Appeal

NEW YORK (AP)—The International Boxing Club was expected today to appeal to the Supreme Court on the refusal of Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan to reverse his ruling that the IBC operated a monopoly in promotion of championship boxing.

"We'll have to meet with counsel and see what the next move will be," said Harry Markson, managing director of the IBC of New York after Judge Ryan denied a motion for reversal.

Judge Ryan ordered dissolution of the IBC of both New York and Illinois in a decision June 24.

Red Mound Crew Unable To Hold Cards

CINCINNATI (AP)—The question-mark pitching of the Cincinnati Reds has faded again after three notable victories.

The Reds ran into difficulties again Tuesday night, platonizing six hurlers in a free-hitting contest. The St. Louis Cardinals hammered their way to a 14-4 victory.

Yet in the three previous games Redleg hurlers managed to both go the route and bring in a win.

There was little chance for that sort of performance Tuesday night. The Cards took the Reds by storm, routing the first two hurlers in the first two innings while manufacturing eight runs.

The Reds strove to get back in the game, collecting one run in the first inning and two more in the fourth.

But St. Louis put the game out of reach with a five-run outburst in the eighth inning.

Wilmer Mizell, the Card's starting hurler, gave up 10 hits to the Reds, but kept them well scattered. He retired after the eighth inning and successor Lloyd Merritt toiled without trouble.

The Reds left immediately after the game for Chicago where a doubleheader is scheduled Thursday with the Cubs.

Nervy Little Dog Gives Life in Fight with Thug

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. Charles Livingston's nervy little dog is her great hero.

The dog, Tex, a 4-year-old mixed breed, routed an armed robbery to protect his mistress Tuesday at the cost of his life.

Mrs. Livingston, manager of an apartment building, opened the door to a man who said he wanted to make a deposit on an apartment.

Once inside, the man pulled a gun and demanded money.

At that moment Mrs. Livingston's husband returned home.

The robber braced himself, back to the door, and, as Mrs. Livingston seized his arm, Tex sprang at the man. The dog sank his teeth in the man's arm. The robber shot Tex in the back, freed himself and escaped past Mrs. Livingston's husband.

2,300 Non-Residents In Line For Montana Antelope Shot

By DION HENDERSON

Associated Press Staff Writer
Breathes there a man with soul so dead, who never to himself has said: "I'd give 20 bucks to shoot an antelope in Montana?"

Well, friend, here is the word. You can. Montana would love to have you. You and 2,299 other fellows.

Montana's tremendous big game resources—ranging from moose to mountain sheep—have become so renowned and the competition for non-resident permits so heated that this time, apparently, too many hopeful hunters gave up without trying.

The result: 2,300 non-resident antelope permits, at $20 a copy, left over.

Under Montana's careful program, six big game management areas have been set aside for non-resident antelope hunters. They are some of the west's best hunting country—rolling prairie and badlands with miles of wide open spaces.

Most of the area is private land where hunting is by permission. Ranchers, say the department of Fish and Game's antelope permit section at Helena, will offer suggestions as to best spots. Some will provide bunkhouse facilities and food. No guide is required.

Under the special permit plan, as many as six persons may apply as a group on one application form. They can apply for deer permits as well.

This is all quite a contrast to the moose hunting, for instance. If your taste runs to moose, you can have one permit in a 10-year period, and if you don't get a moose on your one permit, you wait until the next decade for another chance.

But antelope applications will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Upturn in Steel Said Underway Now

NEW YORK (AP)—The looked-for upturn in steel is underway, according to Iron Age, national metalworking weekly.

The magazine said: "The upward trend in steel has started and it will expand further this month. It will reach a peak late in November or December."

"Much of the new strength comes from new orders for automobile steel. But there has been expansion in volume of orders from miscellaneous sources."

Iron Age said auto firms have worked off substantial inventories and will be active in the sheet and strip market for more steel than they took a year ago at the start of the new model runs.

Sheppard Slaying Confessor Drugged; Case Growing Dim

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Evidence that a "drug-induced nightmare" prompted a confession in the slaying of Dr. Sam Sheppard's wife makes it appear unlikely to officials that a Florida convict will be charged with her murder.

Attorneys for Sheppard, serving a 10-year-to-life sentence in Ohio penitentiary, said they are deciding whether to charge Donald J. Wedler with the killing he recently confessed under sensational circumstances.

Officials in Ohio said counsel for the former osteopath must have the same information they received from fiction writer Erle Stanley Gardner, who entered the case at the request of Sheppard's family.

Gardner, "chief justice" of Argosy magazine's "Court of Last Resort,"—that seeks to aid persons wrongly convicted—inform officials that investigators verified facts indicating the Wedler confession was drug-induced.

The 23-year-old Wedler, a captured Florida fugitive, told questioners that after his first shot of heroin he bludgeoned a woman near Cleveland he believes was Marilyn Sheppard.

Gardner said lie detector tests showed Wedler either killed, or believes he killed, Sheppard's wife in their Bay Village home overlooking Lake Erie west of Cleveland before dawn on July 4, 1954.

Following the usually reliable polygraph lie detector tests, Gov. C. William O'Neill, who could pardon Sheppard, agreed to similar tests for Sheppard. The governor quickly cancelled them when later information made it apparent Wedler had hallucinations.

Experts said hallucinations could have arisen in Wedler's drug-steeped mind from reading widely published accounts of the murder. Wedler's "belief," they said, could account for failure of the polygraph to show he was lying.

Cleveland authorities who questioned Wedler in Florida said he had general, but not specific, knowledge of the crime. They asserted Wedler was "a thousand miles away" and numbered him 26th in a string of self-confessed slayers in the case.

Sheppard all along has maintained his innocence. He blames a bushy-haired intruder for the slaying. Sheppard said his assailant knocked him out twice during struggles in his home and on the lake shore.

Sheppard refused early offers for tests by Cleveland police but agreed to take them in prison under state supervision. Some experts assert too much time has elapsed for effective polygraph tests on Sheppard.

Gardner, who has expressed a feeling tests might convince experts of Sheppard's guilt, terms the Wedler enigma one of criminal investigation's most challenging situations.

The mystery writer disclaims inconsistency in repeating that Wedler told the truth or believes he told the truth.

Officials assert Gardner has shifted from an attack on O'Neill for refusing the tests to a defense of the "Court of Last Resort" because he apparently feels that unofficial body is on trial before the American people.

They said Gardner apparently still wants Sheppard examined but has termed it "inadvisable" for his so-called court to conduct the tests that now appear remote.

U.S. Church Membership Gains 3 Million in Year

NEW YORK (AP)—America's church and synagogue membership rose to a record total of 103,224,954 in 1956—slightly more than 3,000,000 over 1955—the National Council of Churches reports.

This figure indicates that 62 out of every 100 Americans of all ages are members of a church or synagogue.

A century ago, 20 of every 100 Americans were members of a church.

The 1956 increase is reported in the Yearbook of American Churches, published by the National Council of Churches and released Monday. The council is a federation of major Protestant and Eastern Orthodox church bodies.

The figures are a compilation of official reports of religious bodies. Among the statistics included in the publication were these:

The over-all figures from churches and synagogues showed an increase of 3 per cent for 1956, compared with an estimated population rise of 1.7 per cent.

Sunday school enrollment in 1956 was up 2.5 per cent for a total of about 40 million.

Local congregations rose by 3,198 for a total of 308,647.

Pastors with charges reached a new high of 235,100, a gain of 13,000 over 1955.

Per capita contributions were $54, an increase of 8 per cent.

New church construction was at a peak of 775 million dollars, 40 million over 1955.

The average size of congregations rose to 334 in 1956. It was 234 a generation ago.

An analysis of figures of major faiths showed that there were 60,148,980 Protestants—a gain of 1,700,000 during the year; 34,563,851 Roman Catholics—up 1,167,204; 5,500,000 Jews—the same as reported in 1955; and 2,598,055 Eastern Orthodox communicants—a gain of 212,000.

Of the major Protestant groupings, the Baptists led with nearly 20 million members in 27 different church bodies.

Next were Methodists with close to 12 million in 21 bodies;

Lutherans with 7 million, and Presbyterians with slightly under 4 million.

The report said Roman Catholic, Lutheran and Protestant Episcopal churches report as members all persons who are baptized, while most Protestant church bodies count only those young people and adults who have attained full membership. All but a minority of these are more than 13 years old.

The statistics cover only the United States. The Church of Christ Scientist did not report.

The compilation said that the National Council of Churches' constituency of 30 church bodies embraced memberships totaling 37,400,000—up nearly 700,000 over 1955.

OSU To Ask Loan For Men's Dorm

COLUMBUS (AP)—Trustees for Ohio State University have authorized an application for a $1,525,000 federal loan to build new housing for men students.

The money would be used to build two additions to existing men's quarters, to accommodate another 657 men students.

The trustees also approved plans for a new $2,400,000 chemical engineering building to be built in 1958, and gave their sanction

51 Girls Showing Both Beauty and Talent in Contest

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—The 51 contestants vying for the Miss America 1958 title take part today, Thursday and Friday in preliminary swim suit, evening gown and talent competition.

The new Miss America will be chosen before a nationwide television audience Saturday from girls representing 45 states, Canada, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, New York City, Chicago and Washington, D. C.

The contest formally got under way Tuesday night with a dazzling parade of the contestants down this resort community's famed boardwalk.

Thousands of spectators watched the two and a half hour parade led by Grand Marshal Bess Myerson, Miss America 1945 to a reorganization of the College of Education.

In other actions, the board authorized the expenditures of $20,000 for a university press and awarded contracts totaling $773,145 for a four-story addition to the physics building.

Arizona Town Stages Annual Gold Rush for Eastern Dudes

By ART CROCKETT
Central Press

When a hardy German-born prospector named Henry Wickenburg tossed a rock at a nosy buzzard back in 1863 he stumbled across what later became the Vulture mine, the richest gold lode ever discovered in Arizona. Some $30 million in bullion was produced before the yellow dust finally waned.

What Wickenburg failed to envision was that nearly 100 years later the magic word gold would still attract thousands of "prospectors" to the town that had sprung up before his eyes and bore his name.

One January, for instance, an estimated 15,000 excited tourists squatted at placer ditches along the Hassayampa river and panned for color.

The only gold left in the region is of a low-grade variety, assaying at $25 to $30 a ton and mighty hard to come by. However, with a discreet sprinkling of about $4,000 worth of richer dust gathered elsewhere by the Roundup club (Chamber of Commerce) the pie-pan prospectors are kept interested—and they can keep all the gold they find.

The idea started in 1949 when John L. Perkins, a native Arizonian, figured wisely that gold fever plays no favorites. Why, he reasoned, should the pleasure of Gold fever knows no age. His Arizona fathers before him panned for the glittering dust—so does he!

Repairman Killed

PAINESVILLE (AP)—Walter E. Kohler, 42, was overcome by chlorine gas while trying to repair a valve at the base of a well Tuesday and was drowned at the bottom of the 35-foot shaft. A chlorine solution had been put into the water Sunday to purify it.

Baby Girl Suffocates

WILMINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Thomas Young of nearby New Vienna stepped away briefly Tuesday and when she returned, Lynne Michelle Young, her 7-week-old daughter, had suffocated in bed.

finding gold be confined to hard-bitten old sourdoughs?

PERKINS THOUGHT about that unwanted gold developed into Wickenburg's Annual Gold Rush celebration, which is held during the last weekend in January.

Preparations for the big celebration begin early in October. Civic committees are formed and chin stubble is permitted to sprout on all male citizens to lend authenticity to the town that still clings to the Old West traditions.

Real prospectors who have discovered low-grade ore in the surrounding countryside mark off the locations for the ore committee. The ore is then taken to the ditches along the Hassayampa river for dumping.

Promptly at 9 a. m. on a Saturday morning the gold rush begins. Swarms of "prospectors" are turned loose with their pie-pans, dishes, paper plates and gold pans to get the ore that had been dumped into the water-filled ditches the day before.

Millionaires, laborers, clerks, cowboys and Indians squat on their haunches hip to hip, all thoroughly enjoying the gold-fever bug.

Although one 60-year-old woman once walked away from a panning site with $30 worth of gold, no one as yet has struck it rich.

Many of the city-bred tourists with cramped muscles from squatting soon discover there is more to see in Wickenburg than the sand in the bottom of a pan.

The horse is as common a sight as the automobile and cowboys swagger along the streets acting as vigilante committees rounding up unwesternized dandies.

There is also the Buckaroo roundup, a rodeo restricted to teenage cowpokes, jack-drilling and mucking contests and stage-coach tours.

Although there is much to see in Wickenburg, officials agree that the one thing that attracts tourists is the Gold Rush itself.

Pennsylvania Sees Lake Oil Profits

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A state official predicts Pennsylvania may benefit by "millions of dollars" when it leases the first offshore oil and gas drilling rights along Lake Erie later this month.

"We have no hope of this being any way near as big as the offshore operations now under way in the Gulf of Mexico and off the coast of California," said Robert C. Barwick, "but it could well mean millions of dollars for Pennsylvania just the same."

The state has fixed Sept. 24 to receive bids for leasing of two sections off Lake Erie, one 19,300 acres and the other 16,500 acres.

Caddy Miller's HAT SHOP

People who can easily pay any price say:

"Pay more...what for? Ford's the buy!"

Why? Because this 1957 Ford gives you the advanced features, the solid ride, the effortless handling that you once expected to find only in expensive cars. And when it comes to looks, where in all the world can you find fresher styling than in the sculptured-in-steel lines of this new Ford?

Ford's superiority is evident in many places. In the vital rear axle, the pinion gear that turns the rear wheels is straddle-mounted... supported between two anti-friction bearings instead of being "overhung" from a single bearing. This makes operation quieter, smoother and longer-lasting. It's a feature that Ford shares with only one other car maker—Rolls Royce.

Or consider Ford's famous V-8 engine. No other manufacturer in the industry today electronically balances every V-8 engine, while operating under its own power, the way that Ford does. This means you get a smoother-running engine—the finest V-8 in Ford's 25 years of V-8 leadership.

These are only a few of the important hidden values that are yours in the new kind of Ford. But they indicate why so many people who can pay almost any price for a car—people who have driven expensive cars for years—are buying Ford today. Action Test this great performing car at your Ford Dealer's just once and you too, will ask, "Pay more... what for?"
